DECORAH—Luther College, for the 15th consecutive year, won the Iowa Conference track meet here Saturday.

Luther, with its 18th title overall, out-distanced second-place Central College 164-144.

Simpson College claimed a distant third place with 76 total team points with Wartburg taking fourth with 57 points.

Central's Dave Erickson set a new meet record for the triple jump of 46-10. Erickson beat the old record of 46-4½ set by William Penn's Percy Graves in 1976.

Central's Randy Jones also broke one of Graves old records in the high jump. Jones set the new record of 6-6.

Tom Forsgren of Simpson destroyed Tom Jenkins of Wartburg's old record in the pole vault. The record was 14-4¼ but Forsgren upped it to 15 feet even.

Luther's Bill Peckham was honored as the meet's most valuable athlete and Luther's Bob Naslund was named as Coach of the Year.
