

Sooners nab Big 8 track title

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI) — Oklahoma, with a record performance by Randy Wilson in the 1,500-meter run and victories by hurdler Gregg Byrum and sprinter Mike Kelley, won the Big Eight Conference track and field outdoor championship Saturday.

The Sooners amassed 109.5 team points to win their first conference title since 1962 and break Kansas' 11-year claim to the crown. The Jayhawks finished second with 93 points.

Missouri was third with 79 points, followed by Kansas State with 78, Nebraska 66.5, Iowa State 66, Colorado 38 and Oklahoma State 28.

Kansas' Cliff Wiley won the 200-meter but Kelley's third place and Sooners' William Snoddy's second offset the Jayhawk points. Wiley also ran a leg of Kansas' winning mile relay, which set a conference record of 3:05.66.

Other Jayhawk winners were Ted Scales in the pole vault and the 440-yard relay team of Bob Lozito, Anthony Coleman, Wiley and Kevin Newell.
