

BSU men's coach earns first outdoor track title

By Jeff Welsch

The Idaho Statesman

Sixteen l-o-n-g years of waiting came to an abrupt, wet, icy end Saturday amid the twilight shadows at Bronco Stadium.

Boise State men's coach Ed Jacoby finally won his first Big Sky Conference outdoor track and field championship.

Then he got drenched. Three times.

And loved every minute of it. Jacoby was first shocked by a dousing of ice water from two orange water buckets, then twice received the obligatory dunking — sort of, anyway — in the steeplechase pit after the Broncos rolled to their first conference title in 20 years in the Big Sky.

BSU was a runaway winner with 138 points, 51 better than Weber State (87). Surprising Montana State was third (83) and four-time defending champion Northern Arizona was fourth (77).

"Obviously, I'm very happy and I'm very satisfied," said Jacoby, his drenched maroon shirt clinging to his stomach.

Clearly, this was a momentous occasion for BSU's 16th-year coach. He is internationally respected in the sport and his teams have finished in the top 20 nationally the past two years, but a simple Big Sky crown had eluded him.

With one mighty effort from his athletes, the one void on Jacoby's resume has been filled.

"We finally got over the final hurdle," said senior Steve Muse, discus and shot put winner. "We're Big Sky champs."

Said senior javelin thrower Danny Sheets: "It's about time; it's about time. He has been the most deserving coach for this."

NAU Coach Ron Mann, the man whose teams had relegated the Broncos to second place the past three seasons, agreed.

—“Ed Jacoby deserves this,” Mann said. “I have a lot of respect for him. He’s a class act who runs a class program. Hey, he’s got a great team.”

Indeed, so convincing was BSU’s victory that Jacoby’s colleagues were congratulating him and his athletes were playfully rolling around and over each other on the blue rug long before the final event had ended.

Perhaps the issue had even been settled early Friday, when Idaho’s Dan O’Brien, who figured to score anywhere from 30 to 50 points, slightly pulled his left hamstring muscle during the long jump and scratched from the meet. The Vandals figured to be BSU’s chief challengers, but without O’Brien they managed only sixth with 55 points.

“Monday morning the only person who’s going to remember this meet, I think, is Ed,” Idaho Coach Mike Keller rationalized. “We kept him (O’Brien) from getting hurt, because the most important meets anyway are the TAC and the NCAA. Why tear a kid up? Now he’s got eight or nine days.

Teri Harris/The Idaho Statesman

Bronco David Lawyer, middle, won the 400 meters while teammate Dowan Raynor, right, was third and ISU’s Scott Miller was fourth.

It’ll give him a fighting chance.”

But even if the Vandals had O’Brien, it may not have mattered on this weekend, what with the way the Broncos were competing.

“Two weeks ago, things were totally up in the air, but in the last two weeks the guys have really taken the bull by the horns,” BSU assistant coach Randy Mayo said. “They have been phenomenal in practice. We really didn’t have to give any pre-meet talk to the guys to fire them up.”

The Broncos won five of 20 events and scored in all but four. All seven freshmen had at least a top-six finish and registered lifetime-best marks. Only in the 110-meter hurdles, 400-meter hurdles and 5,000-meter run did the Broncos fail to meet expectations.

Meanwhile, NAU won only one event — the steeplechase — and Idaho finished second or better in only three events. Though pesky Weber State momentarily made the meet interesting early, it was clear by mid-afternoon that the Broncos had wrapped it up.

“The situation with Idaho, we weren’t worried about,” said Jacoby, who added for the benefit of anybody who might think O’Brien’s injury, thus the victory, was a gift from the track gods: “I don’t want to take anything away from what these guys did.”

Nobody this side of Moscow was, least of all the BSU athletes. They happily began plotting Jacoby’s first dunking moments after the 1,600-meter relay ended, and while teammate Eugene Greene was capping a victory in the triple jump, they showed they haven’t had much practicing in soaking their coach.

Though strongman Muse was paving the way, they couldn’t submerge Jacoby in the steeplechase pit. He landed on his feet both times and scrambled out.

No matter. Muse and Co. already had drenched him with the ice water from the buckets.

“He deserved it,” Muse cackled, and nobody was arguing.
