Comments: The 1974 So. California Championships went pretty much as predicted with the strongest of both the large and small college divisions actually going as representatives for the South in this year's State Championships. There were no real "upsets" in State qualifying other than El Camino's inability to qualify (first time since 1969). An additional team who is generally seen at the State was unable to upset the field for a position either, but as consolation, like El Camino, L.A. Trade Tech, L.A. C.C., and Orange Coast, they will have an individual representative in the large school division too. (MSAC - first time since 1967). Palomar was picked as a strong dark horse candidate in the small college division to make it, and they did - moving Canyons into a non-qualifying sixth position. As with the large colleges - Canyons will be represented individually (2) at the State Meet also.

The real success story of the meet was Coach Bob Larson's Grossmont team's fourth consecutive So. Calif. Championship (and outstanding team time record of 1:40:57 - that's less than 20:20 avg. per man), Bobby Thomas' strong, but "easy looking" course record of 19:26.0, and Cliff Morden's large college victory of 19:35.0. L.A. Valley had a very impressive team performance behind Cliff (1:41:56) as did Glendale behind Thomas (1:42:09). Moorpark surprised Fullerton to take third in the large college division and ran the fourth fastest team effort of the day in doing it (1:42:44).

The stage is set for the State Meet on November 23. It'll be the same course, but with the large colleges going at 10:00 a.m. and the small at 11:00. Every Northern California school represented is familiar with the Mt. San Antonio College course after running in the Invitational there on October 25 of this year. Their Northern California performances were impressive on that occasion and should be in the State. We don't predict a Northern California resurgence at the State this year, but the North should even improve on last year's "best ever" showing in both the large and small divisions.
