

Wheaton college's track squad ran true to form on the Augie track last Saturday afternoon, and scored a total of 89 points to win the first annual College Conference of Illinois track and field meet. The Crusader team won 10 first places, and failed to place in only three of the 15 events.

Augie's Vikings, who were in fourth place before the final event, the one-mile relay, ran second to the Wheaton quartet in the relay and pushed themselves up to second place in the meet standings with a total of 32 5/14 points.

North Central took the third place trophy with 31 5/15 points, and Millikin university was squeezed into fourth place with 30 5/7 points. Illinois Wesleyan placed fifth with 20 6/7^N points, while Carthage college was sixth with 16 5/7 points. Elmhurst's squad made four points, enough for seventh place, and Illinois college failed to score.

Gil Dodds, holder of the world's indoor mile record, who is a graduate student and assistant track coach at Wheaton college, was clocked in 1:54 in his exhibition half-mile race.
