Woodchopper enters Derby

LOUISVILLE, KY. (AP) - Woodchopper, the Louisiana Derby winner who originally was scheduled to skip the Kentucky Derby, became a Derby candidate again Saturday.

Jack Gaver, who trains the Greentree Stable colt, said Woodchopper was due to arrive at Churchill Downs today and have a major workout Tuesday.

As to why he changed his mind about sending Woodchopper to the Derby, Gaver said: "I thought Cure The Blues would destroy his field in the Wood Memorial (he finished third), and then the horse that finished 11th in the Louisiana Derby (Law Me) came back to be second to Proud Appeal in the Blue Grass. Those two occurrences made us reassess the situation."

Pleasant Colony sharp in Derby workout

NEW YORK, N.Y. (AP) - Pleasant Colony turned in a sensational run at Belmont Park Saturday in one of his final workouts for the Kentucky Derby.

The Buckland Farm 3-year-old, who won the Wood Memorial at Aqueduct April 18, went five-eighths of a mile in 59.4 seconds over a muddy track. His fractions were 24.4, 35.4 and 59.4, and the exercise rider eased Pleasant Colony through six furlongs in 1:13.
