STATEMENT FROM CATHERINE BOND-MILLS WHO WITHDREW FROM DRAKE RELAYS HEPTATHLON AFTER FOULING IN ALL THREE ATTEMPTS OF THE LONG JUMP.

"I'm upset with myself. I should know better than to do something like that. (foul). I'm disappointed because this was such a well run meet."

Mills, a two-time Olympian who is the Canadian national record holder in the heptathlon (6,193 points), was the first-day leader with 3,508 points. Oregon's Jennifer Thomas grabbed the heptathlon lead entering into the javelin competition.

1998 DRAKE RELAYS QUOTES

April 23, 1998...Drake Stadium, Des Moines, Iowa

Temperatures on Thursday ranged in mid 70s...Winds from west at 17 mph with gusts up to 22 miles per hour.

MULTI-EVENT WINNERS

Women's heptathlon winner, Jennifer Thomas, Oregon, who scored personal best of 5,401 while qualifying for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. Point total was the fourth highest by collegian in U.S. this year. Thomas was third in 1997 Drake Relays.

"I'm pretty excited. It has been a rough two days to get through with a nice performance. Last year it was quite cold and this year it has been beautiful weather. There have also been more fans here. I am very happy to be here."

(On Catherine Bond-Mills) "She was going to win. She is an awesome athlete and she was trying to set a record. I was sorry to see her go."

Men's decathlon winner, Kip Janvrin, Visa, who scored 8,038 points, to win fourth straight title. It also allowed him to become the all-time Drake Relays record victory leader at nine. His other victories in the decathlon were in 1987-90, 1992, 1995-97. This also marked the 19th time Janvrin has scored over 8,000 points.

"A few years ago 10 years was a long way but it would be neat to be able to do it. I was pleased with my hurdles and my discus was decent. I am very, very pleased with my pole vault and my javelin was okay. The 1500 meters I was happy with what I did. My goal was to win the meet. I got my number one goal to win and I did."

(On the two-day event): "I was very pleased with my 100m and real pleased with my 400m. My hurdles were awesome and I was very pleased with my vault. If things would have went different I could have went farther (in the pole vault)."

"I'm still having fun and I can't believe I'm scoring 8,000 points. I'm going to keep training and will compete in the U.S. Championships and what I do there will dictate what I do from there."
