

Kirchmann in 49.2 440, Mt. Sac Wins

SANTA ANA, May 2—Santa Ana's Larry Kirchmann, covering 440 yards in zippy 49.2 time highlighted individual performances today in the All-Eastern Conference track finals.

Coach Hilmer Lodge's Mt. San Antonio squad captured the team championship with a 59 1/10 point total, nosing out Coach John Ward's Santa Anans, who accumulated 56 1/10. Chaffey, Riverside, Orange Coast, San Bernardino and Fullerton trailed.

Baton Dropped

A dropped baton on the third lap of the final mile relay event may have cost Santa Ana the team title, or at least a tie for it.

The host Dons led the meet by one point going into the baton chase. And Santa Ana was dead even with Mt. San Antonio as the relay roared into its third lap. The stick, however, eluded the grasp of the Dons' third-lapper several steps after taking the pass. Mt. San Antonio won the race, Santa Ana finishing fifth.
