

Rain dampens NCAC qualifying; Wildcats soar

Rainy weather hampered athletes and officials alike during the preliminary rounds of the Northern California Athletic Conference track and field championship meet which began Friday night at University Stadium.

Trials in all running events up through 400 meters were held as well as finals in the shot put, javelin, 10,000 meters, hammer and long jump for both men and women.

The pole vault was also supposed to be contested but the wet conditions made it hazardous so it will be held at 11 a.m. today.

The finals in the remaining events will begin at 5:30 this evening at University Stadium.

There were several early surprises, many of them favoring the host Wildcats.

UC Davis leads the men's division with 41 points, followed by Chico State at 39, Stanislaus 9, SF State 6 and Humboldt 3.

Chico State and Humboldt are tied for the women's division lead at 23 while meet favorite UC Davis is right behind at 21. SF State has 18 and Stanislaus State,

Frances Bynum of Chico State was a surprise winner in the women's javelin with a throw of 119-9 while teammate Heather Halliday was right behind at 111-7.

Chico State also took three places in the women's long jump with Stephanie Duntsch (17-9) getting a third, April Cochrane (17-3 $\frac{3}{4}$) fourth and Halliday sixth (17-3 $\frac{1}{2}$).

Kate Morris picked up a fourth in the hammer, posting a personal best by over seven feet at 131-3.

Chico State got 15 points in the shot put by sweeping the first four places. Tim Fuq (52-10 $\frac{1}{4}$), John McDonald (52-9 $\frac{1}{4}$), Greg Chappell (50-10 $\frac{3}{4}$) and Bruce Ventara (48-2 $\frac{1}{2}$) finished in that order.

In the 10,000, Chris Myers won at 31:25.81, followed by Eric Ricketts (31:32.02), Kevin Selby (31:40.07) and Billy Ricketts (31:42.54) in third, fourth and fifth, respectively. The race was run in a heavy downpour.

Chico State had one other victory. Phil Mishoe leaped 22-7 $\frac{1}{4}$ in the long jump to win.
