

CSU Women Take 3rd Track Title

HAYWARD (E-R)—Chico State University's women's track team pulled out its third consecutive Northern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship here Saturday.

Despite the cold, windy conditions Chico State had 78 points. Hayward was runner up with 64, edging Davis with 63. Berkeley had 41 and Humboldt 13.

Renda Cary was the Wildcats only double winner. Besides anchoring the 440 Relay unit, Cary set school and conference records in the 100 clocking :11.2. Her other first place finish was in the 220.

The 440 relay unit comprised of Michelle Devol, Shelia Hamilton, Vanita Walter and Cary was timed in :44.2.

Eight CSU track team members also qualified for the nationals in Corvallis, Oregon. They were Jan Basich, Lori DeGheraldi, Val Ritchie, Jan Hasinck, Cary, Hamilton, Devol and Walter.
