AU entered the Hoosier Conference for Women meet without standout distance runner Melanie Bingham, who is suffering from a possible stress fracture. The Raven women dominated the throwing events, though, to help make up for Bingham's absence. Erin Lefdahl won the discus and took third in the shot put. Lisa Souder took second in the discus, while Angela Helvey captured fourth in both the discus and shot. Kriss Eisenhower took second in the javelin, and Tamra Miller claimed third.
