

STERLING, KAN., May 19.—(A)—

Baker university won the annual Kansas conference track and field meet here today, taking 39 points to lead its nearest competitor, Kansas Wesleyan of Salina by a margin of 5. Friends university of Wichita was third with 22 points, McPherson fourth with 21½.

Martin Isaacson, of Kansas Wesleyan, took individual honors of the meet with 11 points to his credit. He won the low hurdles and took second in the broad jump, 220-yard and 100-yard dashes.

Puckett of McPherson who won the 220-yard and century dashes and Wharton of Baker, winner of the mile and two mile runs were close on Isaacson's heels for individual scores, each having 10 points to his credit.

The track was somewhat soft from recent rains, but fine weather favored the competitors and spectators. No conference records were broken.

Bethany college of Lindsborg took 16 points; Ottawa university and Sterling college 13 each, and Bethel 6½. St. Mary's college did not enter a team.
