

The College of Emporia, pre-meet favorite, captured six first places and scored in all but four events to tally 54½ points and sweep to an easy victory in the Kansas Conference track and field meet at Kansas Wesleyan's Martin Stadium Friday.

Ottawa University's Braves, who finished third this year, were out of the winner's circle for the first time in the past eight seasons.

Ottawa, which scored 34 points, finished behind Emporia and the Baker Wildcats, who placed second with 42½ points.

McPherson took fourth place, one point shy of Ottawa. Bethel came in fifth with 21, Kansas Wesleyan was sixth with 19. Bethany seventh with 17 and Friends eighth with 7.
