

Wayne University made its bow in championship competition in the Mid-America Conference a success by capturing two titles.

The Tartars won the track and golf crowns as the Mid-America ended its first year of competition. The tennis title was taken by the University of Cincinnati.

* * *

WAYNE CRUSHED its three rivals in the track meet. The Tartars piled up 113 points, while Butler finished second with 46 points. Ohio University finished third with 31 points and Western Reserve fourth with 17. Cincinnati was not represented.

