Miami also won its first tennis championship, while Ohio University won the golf crown for the third year in a row.

Redskin cindermen, sweeping to 10 first places, broke four conference records in their one-sided triumph. They piled up 89½ points, with Western Michigan's 46½ good enough for second. Trailing were Bowling Green 24½, Cincinnati 20½, Western Reserve 18½, Marshall 9½ and Kent State 1½.
