

CHAPEL HILL — South Carolina State College's men and the Delaware State College women won the Eighth Annual Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Indoor Track and Field Championships held at the "Tin Can" at the University of North Carolina campus.

Maryland Eastern Shore's Howard Lindsay accumulated a MEAC record 28.5 points and was named the men's Outstanding Performer. Lindsay anchored the winning mile relay team, finished first in the 440-yard dash and was second in the long jump. Robert Johnson, who diagrammed the strategy to end Delaware State's two-year title streak, was named the Most Outstanding Male Coach.

Tanya McCray of Delaware State won the mile run and totalled 26 points en route to being named the women's Outstanding Performer. Fred Sowerby guided the Hornets to their fifth straight MEAC Indoor Track title and was tabbed the Most Outstanding Female Coach for as many years.
