

Lewis wins two events in MEAC indoor track title

Lakeema Lewis won the 55-meter low hurdles and long jump in pacing Hampton University's women to the title in the MEAC Indoor Track and Field championships at Maryland-Eastern Shore.

The Hampton men finished second, behind Norfolk State.

Lewis clocked 7.92 seconds in beating Florida A&M's Robin McClain in by 0.03 seconds in the hurdles for the Pirates, who amassed 90.50 points, 29.5 more than Maryland-Eastern Shore and Florida A&M.

They were followed in order by Norfolk State (54), Bethune-Cookman (45), Morgan State (25), Delaware State (19), S.C. State (16.5), Howard (16), Coppin State (10) and N.C. A&T (5).

Lewis' 18-foot, 11-inch long jump was an inch and a half beyond that of S.C. State's Danielle Smith.

Hampton followed with (62), and then came, in order, N.C. A&T (58), Maryland-Eastern Shore (44), Florida A&M (38), Coppin State (35), S.C. State and Morgan State (34 each), Bethune-Cookman (30), Howard (10) and Delaware State (9).

Brown's time for 200 meters was 21.77 seconds, 0.2 seconds faster than Florida A&M's Corey Cameron.

In the 400, Brown ran 47.80 seconds, a full half-second faster than N.C. A&T's Charles Shofner.

Hampton's Nathan Alexander won the men's 55-meter hurdles in 7.77 seconds, a blink ahead of S.C. State's Errick Dixon.