

Johns Hopkins's webfooted track and field team won the Mason-Dixon Conference track and field championship on a rain-soaked Homewood Field yesterday, rolling up 67½ points against 55 by University of Delaware and 46½ for Catholic University. Five other institutions trailed these leaders.

The Jays splashed their way to six first places yesterday, and two weeks ago they had captured the mile relay run at the Penn Relays.

Bill Jameson, former Penn State athlete, turned in the best performance for the winning team, scoring 14 points through victories in the 440-yard run, the 220-yard low hurdles and a second place in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Nencioni Paces Eagles

Al Nencioni, American University sprint star, matched Jameson's performance, by winning both century and furlong dashes, and placing second in the broad jump, but the Eagles gave him no support.

Following the three leading teams were Gallaudet, last year's champion, 30; American, 15; Bridgewater, 3; Loyola, 3, and Western Maryland, 1.
