

AU Outscores Roanoke, Wins Track Title

American University scored 47½ points to easily win the Mason-Dixon Conference track championships yesterday at AU, the first time in the school's history the Eagles have won this meet.

Roanoke, defending champion and winner six times in the previous seven years, was second with 31½ points.

Mount St. Mary's was third with 24 points, followed by Johns Hopkins, 19½; Randolph-Macon, 18½; Loyola, 18; Lynchburg, 13; Catholic University and Gallaudet, each 12½; Bridgewater, 8; Washington College, 2.

There were no new records set, probably due to the rain-softened track. The Eagles took five first places and five seconds in piling up their points with Ed Ball of Arlington their top man. He won the 880 and ran second on the winning mile relay.

The high point man was Duncan Bossler of Mount St. Mary's who picked up 13 points with a first in the broad jump and second in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.
