

Junior Barry Stebbins scored 22 points to pace Mt. St. Mary's to its fourth consecutive Mason-Dixon Conference indoor track championship Saturday at Lexington, Va.

Stebbins won the pole vault, the long jump, and the 60-yard hurdles, finished third in the 60-yard dash and fifth in the high jump to place the Mount on top of the seven-team meet with 77 points. Towson and Catholic University tied for second place with 38 points.

Stebbins won the pole vault with a mark of 13 feet, the long jump with a mark of 22-10³/₄. He recorded his first place in the hurdles with a time of 7.6, while his time of 6.5 was good enough for third place in the 60-yard dash. His leap of 6-2 in the high jump was good for fifth place.

Sophomore Mark Martin set a meet record of 1:54.2 in the 880, while teammate Lowell Brooks defended his shot put title with a heave of 50 feet. Jim Draper's second place in the 2-mile run featured his career best time of 9:26.

Mason-Dixon 440 champ Ron Burns pulled up lame in the trials of 440.

Other schools competing and their scores included University of Maryland — Baltimore County, 24, Salisbury St., 21, Loyola, 7, and George Mason, 3.
