

Jeter in 14.6

Hurdles Win;

Valley Collects

East Los Angeles' Floyd Jeter, the country's best junior college high jumper, took over that distinction in another department—the 120 high hurdles—in the All-Metropolitan Conference track championships last night when he hopped to a 14.6 victory at Santa Monica's Corsair Field.

Los Angeles Valley won the record-studded meet with an overwhelming team total of 63½ points. Long Beach was second, far behind with 32.

No Wind

Jeter, who earlier in the day had run a wind-aided 14.7 in a qualifying race, skipped over the sticks without any breeze to record his 14.6 that broke a meet mark.

So tired from a long day of competition, the star Husky, who already has tied the national JC high jump record at 6ft. 8½in., settled for a 6ft. 2½in. victory last night.

Seven meet records in all went tumbling, the most prominent of these occurring in the half mile and two mile.

1:56.7 Half Mile

Santa Monica's Roy Houghton (1:56.7) was two strides ahead of East L.A.'s Ray Cenicerroz (1:56.9) in a thrilling 880. Allen Peterson of Coach Jim Slosson's L.A. Valley club became the first Southland JC to break 10 minutes as he easily copped the two mile in 9:56.1.
