

MUHLENBERG ATHLETES SHOW UP WELL

With only four men entered at the Middle Atlantics held on Saturday at Swarthmore, Muhlenberg finished fourth, the team scoring ten points. Rutgers was first with a score of 48 points; Swarthmore second with 33 points and Lafayette third with 31 5-6 Stevens was fifth with 8 1-3; Delaware, 7 1/2; New York U., 7; Haverford, 4 1-3; Washington and Jefferson, 3; Lehigh, 1.

Erb won the half mile for Muhlenberg in the fast time of 2 minutes 23-5 seconds. Considering the condition of the track which resembled a canal the time is unusually fast and speak well for the local runner. Arlin Kline, who last year was a big scorer at the meet, managed to place second in the 220 low hurdles which was won by Bellerjeau of Rutgers in 27 1-5 seconds Pratt, of Rutgers, heaved the discus for 119 feet 1 inch; Hoot, of Swarthmore, was second, and Wills, of Muhlenberg, third. Reinartz was unable to place in the finals although he had qualified in the trials in the morning.
