

Coe, Cornell go 1-2 in track

CHICAGO — Chuck Meyer captured two individual titles while leading Coe College to its third straight Midwest Conference Track and Field championship Saturday.

Coe totaled 90 points to outdistance second-place Cornell by 16. Chicago was third, followed by Grinnell and Carleton.

Meyer won the high jump with a leap of 6 foot, 4 inches and took the triple jump with a 14.03 meter effort. He was also second in the long jump and fourth in the 60-yard dash.

Coe's other winners were Paul Wagner in the pole vault and Bob Shanahan in the 1,000-yard run. Wagner, who was followed by teammate Kevin Welu, set a conference mark with a 14-6 effort.

Cornell also had a double-winner in Matt Trimble. The former Iowa City standout won the mile run in 4:15.9 and two-mile in 9:20.3.

The Rams' Jeff Devilder won the shot put for Cornell's only other championship.
