By EUGENE BUCKLEY.

SPRINGFIELD, May 18—Dartmouth made a thorough cleanup in the 28th annual championships of the New England Intercollegiate A. A., which were concluded at the Springfield Training School grounds this afternoon.

Dartmouth kept on the jump in the track events, winning places here and there and scoring altogether 16 points. It was in the field events that the Green giants got in their fine work, carrying off no less than 30 points, which crushed the hopes of the Brown men and the rest of the field, who had hoped to score more heavily.

Dartmouth won two points in the 440-yard run, two in the one mile, one in the 100 yards, 5 in the half, three in the

Two miles, three in the 100-yard run, six in the high jump, one in the shot, 20 in the hammer, 8 in the pole vault and 2 in the discus.

New records were made in the high jump, the shot, pole vault, discus, broad jump and hammer. In the shot the old mark of 42 ft 10 1/2 in., made by Rollins of Amherst in 1904, was bettered by Bartlett of Brown, who did 43 ft 8 in. In the high jump, Barnhart of Dartmouth and Underwood of M. I. T. did at 4 ft 7 1/2 in., which raises the record held jointly by G. Horras of Williams and E. R. Palmer of Dartmouth, and made in 1908, of 4 ft 7 1/2 in.

The old pole vault record of 121 ft 5/8 in., held by F. Mason of Trinity and made last year, was bettered by Wright of Dartmouth, who did 123 ft 5/8 in. In connection with the records of Dartmouth to stretch out the record for the game from 121 ft 5/8 in., made by C. K. Weaver of Dartmouth in 1908, to 123 ft 5/8 in. and Scott Barnhart of Brown and Gove of Bates also bettered the old record considerably.

Guterson's Performance.

A. L. Guterson of Vermont won the broad jump and incidentally made a new record, in which he set the mark at 237 1/2 in. There was some discussion as to the correctness of the record, as the judges made a mistake in measuring the shoulder break instead of the heel break and the officials were threatened if not after the game.

Marble, the Hercules of the Dartmouth team, made a new record with the hammer, doing 160 ft 5/8 in. and beating the previous mark made by A. H. Tilly of Dartmouth in 1908, which was 150 ft 5/8 in.

Were it not for the heaviness of the track there would have been some record smashing in the running events, and as it was, none of them troubled.

The individual honors went to Marston of Dartmouth, who scored firsts in both the hammer and discus, and got fourth in the shot, marking 11 points in all events, the Brown sprinter, won the 100 and was second in the 200, making eight points for his team.

Bowdoin entered only eight men and qualified four out of five for the finals. Coach Pink Marsh and his men were delighted to find out on many points in which a few feet were given in each of the events. As it was, Bowdoin scored second in the broad jump, third in the one-mile run and fourth in the quarter.

Good Day for Athletics.

It was an ideal day for track and field sports, there being plenty of sunshine with scarcely a breath of air stirring and the dust laid down by the recent rains. This of course was fully appreciated by the gallery, if the athletes did appreciate it made the going a little easy.

In the gymnastics, which were provided with the first families of the city of college colors, and as the game progressed the cheering became general, even if the somewhat singing of the Amherst Glee Club and the band and orchestra from Dartmouth were missing and silent.

The meet was managed tactfully, but nevertheless it lacked the dash and pep of the old-time meets of the Worcester oval, when the colorful rival with the athletes in stirring things up. The sports began promptly at 11 and were brought to a close about 1:30, giving a very early supper and a good night.

The first heats in the 100-yard dash left for the final some exceptionally good men, among them Barnhart of Colby and Horras of Brown, who was selected by the judges to drive the Dartmouth in the lap in better events. Barnhart sprang like a deer and had his field well back at the middle distance and finishing at the finish, which he reached in 11-3/4 seconds, about the same speed time of 11-5/8, track considered.

There was good rivalry and heat the placed and the runners were recalled. The race laid out again later in the final and the rivalry again was good and the Bates contingent stood up and cheer as Barnhart beat the finish of the century leading by fully a yard and a half.

Lively Hurdle Race.

Two semifinals and the final brought out the field of rubber topped in the low hurdle. Wendell was won by two from Troy, Gutterson of Vermont, Blanchard of Bates and Marble of Brown before shoulder to shoulder until near the line when they finished in the order named.

Gutterson of Tech had the pole in the quarter-mile and led at the first turn, but was challenged in the straight by the runner of Bates, who was in the lead and was by less than a foot.

His men were in the line of the half mile, which proved to be one of the longest of the meet and it made Tech wear away at a terrific rate, but was rescued by Tully of Dartmouth who for the first time led well into the stretch. Tully retained the lead and advanced by a margin and it made Tech wear away at a terrific rate, but was rescued by Tully of Dartmouth who for the first time led well into the stretch. In the last lap, Power began to turn outside and had well out to distance his margin on the Maine man, who was second in the race. As the race closed the way around in the second lap, Tully of Brown moved up to second place and on the last lap extended his margin over the runner, only to find that he was a small burst of speed ahead of him.

Mile Runners.

Each of Tech took the lead at the first turn in the mile and was still ahead at the first quarter, with A. P. Hirtle of Williams in second place and the lead on the line. Hirtle was overtaken by Tully of Dartmouth in seven laps and Hirtle was in the lead. Hirtle of Williams also got in the race. Power showed them up and beat his rivals from Tech. Hirtle was second a yard ahead of him.

DANCE AROUND BONFIRE.

Dartmouth Freshmen Celebrate at Hanover, N. H., New England Inter-Collegiate Track Victory.

HANOVER, N. H., May 18.—The old-time bonfire drive in the center of the Dartmouth Campus, long used to celebrate the victories of the college, was tonight the scene of the first big day of the college year. The decisive victory by the New England Inter-Collegiate track meet was no longer unnoticed in Hanover this afternoon than cries of "Freshmen up" started this array of 60 on the march of bonfires.

To Mrs. Harry Hillman was given the honor of lighting the big pile, high as College Hall. Around the great fire the freshmen did their usual pajama make dance followed by the general friendly mixing with the soph.

TRIES TO SAVE DAUGHTER.

Mrs. Catherine Montague May Die of Burns—Little Cleaner Succumbs to Injuries.

Mrs. Catherine Montague, 41 years old, and her daughter, Elsie, 4 years old, were terribly burned about 7 o'clock yesterday for a fire at their home at 4 Glen at Somerville. The child died a few hours later at the Somerville Hospital and the mother's injuries are so serious that there is little expectation she can survive.

Mrs. Montague was in the kitchen with two of her children, having left Elsie and a 3-year-old boy, Thomas, in bed. Hearing shrieks from them she ran upstairs and found the children's bed and Elsie's nightgown in flames. She took the child in her arms, desperately trying to smother the blazing nightgown, but her own clothing took fire.

She finally succeeded in wrapping the child in a blanket, but not before she had been burned herself. Neighbors rushed the child in her own clothing, and Elsie was put out the fire in the chamber, which caused damage amounting to about $15.

DR. F. N. PELOUSSET SPEAKER.

Story-Tellers' League Meets at Temple-St. Church.

A meeting of the Story-Tellers' League was held in the parlor of the Temple-St. Church yesterday afternoon, with Miss Harlow as leader. Miss Harlow led the devotional exercises and Rev. Dr. F. N. Pelousset spoke on "Some Personal Experiences in Studying and Teaching the Bible."

At the close of the address Miss Leary E. Craig told of relations for lecturers. Mrs. A. E. Barrett spoke for the primary and Miss Wentworth for the juniors.

Woman Hurt by Fall From Car.

Mrs. Thomas Denton of 22 West 24 at South Boston, received injuries to the head last night by a fall from a car in West Broadway, near B at, South Boston, she left the car, it was said, while the car was moving. She was taken to a hospital for treatment and then to her home.
