

Boo Morcom Scores Triple; R. I. State Wins Track Title

Wildcats Second In New Englands; Maine Is Third; No Records Broken

Newton, Mass., May 8—(AP)For the fifth time in the past six years Rhode Island State today won the annual New England Intercollegiate Track Championships, massing 34 points to stand off a surge by the University of New Hampshire.

Faced by a triple win by A. R. (Boo) Morcom who won the high and broad jumps as well as the pole vault and a clean sweep of the broad jump points, New Hampshire scored 26½. Maine was third with 18½.

Although no intercollegiate records fell, Herb McKenley, fiery Boston College sprinter from the West Indies, made a new track record of 21.7 on a heavy track for the 220, two-tenths better than the old record. He also won the 100 yard dash easily.

The surprise of the meet was a 17-year-old freshman from Springfield College, Bobby Knowles, who beat the veteran Roy Phillips of Tufts in a thrilling mile race. The youngster uncorked a fine sprint at the end to win by five yards in 4:22.4.

Other team scores: Boston College 13½; Springfield 13; Holy Cross 12; MIT 11½; Tufts 11½; Wesleyan 10; Northeastern 8½; Brown 3¼; Middlebury 3, and Colby and Connecticut one each.
