ONU men end Mt. Union's 14-year hold on men's OAC Indoor Track and Field Championship

Baldwin-Wallace wins ninth straight women's OAC title

ADA — Matt Wolf won three events and anchored the championship-clinching, second place relay team in the final event of the day, leading the Ohio Northern men to their first-ever Ohio Athletic Conference Indoor Track and Field Championship at the ONU Sports Center on Saturday.

The Polar Bears defeated Mount Union 130-129, ending the Purple Raiders' string of 14 consecutive OAC indoor titles.

Baldwin-Wallace won the women's team championship by a more comfortable margin, 125-106 over second place Ohio Northern. The championship was the ninth consecutive for the Yellow Jackets. ONU's finish was its highest ever.

Wolf was named the OAC Men's Indoor Track Athlete of the Year with victories in the 55 meters (6.43 seconds), 300 meters (OAC record time of 35.11 seconds) and as the anchor on the Bears' winning 4 x 200-meter relay squad (ONU Sports Center record 1:31.34).

He was also the anchor on ONU's 4 x 400 meter relay team that finished second in the final event of the championship. The Bears finished 2.40 seconds ahead of Mount Union, in 3:27.04, to come from one point behind and post the team championship.

Mount Union's Shawn Watson won the OAC Men's Indoor Field Event Athlete of the Year Award by winning the triple jump and long jump events in OAC and ONU Sports Center distances of 49' 1 1/2" and 24' 10", respectively.

Mount Union's David Cooper was also a double winner in the men's competition, taking individual titles in the 1,500 (4:00.13) and 1,000 meter runs. His 1,000-meter time of 2:29.99 is an OAC and ONU Sports Center record.

Ohio Northern head coach Larry Cole was voted the OAC Men's Indoor Track and Field Coach of the Year by his peers.

Amy Wood of Ohio Northern was named the OAC Women's Indoor Track Athlete of the Year award for winning the 55 meter dash in a school and ONU Sports Center record time of 8.28 seconds, winning the 55-meter dash in a school record time of 7.40 seconds.

Mount Union's Kenya Shipp claimed the OAC Women's Indoor Field Event Athlete of the Year for her winning effort in the long jump in an OAC-record lead of 18' 2". She finished second in the triple jump with an identical effort of 36' 7", also posted by event champion Thea Consler of John Carroll.

Minette Jackson of John Carroll was a triple-winner, taking titles in the 400 and 500 meter dash in times of :58.79 and 1:20.54, respectively, and anchoring the Blue Streaks' winning 4 x 400 relay squad.

Baldwin-Wallace head coach Bill Taraschke was named the OAC Women's Indoor Track and Field Coach of the Year.
