

Lynchburg wins ODAC title

BRIDGEWATER (AP) — Roanoke's Jesse Thomas was the top individual performer but Lynchburg's Hornets had the most depth and edged Bridgewater's Eagles Saturday for the Old Dominion Athletic Conference track and field championship.

The Hornets finished with 57 points to 54 for the host Eagles. Washington and Lee had 47, Eastern Mennonite 45, Emory and Henry 42 and Roanoke 26.

Aubrey Moon of Lynchburg, whose indoor and outdoor teams were unbeaten in dual meet competition, was named ODAC coach of the year.

Thomas, who provided 18½ of Roanoke's points with three first places, was named the outstanding athlete. Thomas won the 220, 440 and triple jump and ran a leg on the mile relay team.

The only other double winner was Jim Herr of Eastern Mennonite, who was first in the long jump and 440 intermediate hurdles.

Ricky Davis of Bridgewater scored 12½ points. He was second in the 440 and triple jump and fourth in the long jump and ran on the winning 440 relay team and second-place mile relay team.
