

Favored Louisville and Marshall ran away from the field last night in the Ohio Valley conference track meet at Enlow field.

Scores were: Louisville 76; Marshall 61; Evansville 32; Western Kentucky 21, and Eastern Kentucky 19. No other schools competed.

George Thabit, Marshall freshman from Huntington, W. Va., was high point man with 14 points. He won the high jump and pole vault and placed second in the high hurdles.

Louisville's victory was expected, but the Cardinals were pressed closely by Marshall all the way. Louisville gained the lead by taking 17 points in the first two events, the mile and 440, but the West Virginians chipped away at the margin until the Cardinals' led, 25 to 23, at the end of five.

Then the Cards whipped but further in front by taking the first three places in the half-mile.

Evansville's only winner was Angelo Howard in the broad jump. However, Frank Lutz failed to take the shot put, ending second.

Only double winner besides Thabit was Dick George, Louisville sprinter who took the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Another top Cardinal speedster, Joe Trabue, missed placing because of a foot injury.

In addition to Lutz, two other Evansville athletes took seconds. Jerry Canterbury stayed close to Louisville's Bill Rudolph in the mile, but couldn't quite match the winner's 4:33.7 clocking. Canterbury also placed fifth in the 880, despite a sore foot.

Bob Barnett ran his best two-mile of the season, an unofficial 10:19.8, for another runner-up spot. However, he was far behind Louisville's ace, Don Noel, who covered the eight laps in 9:53.8.
