

COOKEVILLE, Tenn., May 24 (AP) —Five Ohio Valley Conference track records fell as Tennessee Tech's Golden Eagles swept to their first OVC track championship here today.

The Eagles, with David Ransom setting two new records, racked up 78½ points.

Sam Vineyard and Murrell King posted a new record apiece in leading Kentucky's Murray to second place with 53 points.

Ransom ran the low hurdles in 25.6, shaving a 10th of a second off the mark Eastern Kentucky's John Paul Jones set last year. He clipped another 10th of a second off Jones' high hurdle mark by running the course in 15.4.

Vineyard shaved a 10th of a second off his old record of 22.3 in the 220-yard dash. King ran the 100 in 10 seconds flat in the qualifying trials to cut a fifth of a second from the record set by Marshall's Ed Meredith last year, but he finished fifth in the official dash.

The fifth record set was by Western's Max Stevens who broad-jumped 21 feet, six and one-half inches, a half inch better than the mark set by Murray's Jim Rowlett last year.
