

Adams State Wins RMC Crown

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP) — Adams State College won the Rocky Mountain Conference track championship Saturday in a meet which saw two loop records fall and another tied.

Adams State tallied 107 points; Colorado State College 82, Colorado Mines 28 and Western State 24.

Juha Vaatanien of Adams State smashed the conference 800-yard run mark in 1 minute, 5.15 seconds. The old record was a 1:56.6 set back in 1934 by Colorado College's Wilbur Larson.

Tom Elliott of Mines toppled the 440-Yard hurdle record in 54.7 seconds, compared with the previous best of 5.35 run by Elliott last year.

Adams State's John Turner equalled the conference record in the 220-yard dash of 21.6 seconds first set by Charles Campbell of Idaho State in 1958.
