

Gross Tosses Two Records

GUNNISON (UPI) — Frank Gross broke conference records in the shot put and discus to lead Adams State College to its third straight Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Track Championship Saturday.

Gross spun the discus 157 feet 11½ inches and hurled the shot put 52 feet 1¼ inches to break the existing marks and aid Adams State to a 183 total. Other record breakers for Adams State were Mel Billups in the 220 and 440-yard events and Charlie Vigil in the one-mile and three-mile races.

Western New Mexico was second with 127 followed by Colorado Mines at 91 and Western State at 84. Fifth was Southern Utah State College with 68.
