LEXINGTON (AP) — Washington U. of St. Louis capitalized on depth in the high jump, mile and 880 to sweep to the first College Athletic Conference Track and Field title Saturday.

The Bears rolled up 85 points to runner-up Sewanee's 62. Host Washington and Lee finished third with 52 points, followed by Southwestern of Memphis, 29, and Centre, 11.

Paced by distance star John Nelke, the meet's only double winner, Washington U. grabbed first, third and fifth in the mile and first, third and fourth in the 880. George Kramer led a 1-2-3 sweep in the high jump for the Bears.

Washington claimed two places in five other events, too, and failed to score only in the javelin and the broad jump.
