

WU won the track honors with a score of 101. W and L followed with 51, and Centre 48½, Southwestern 38½, and Sewanee 33. Dave Remado of WU won the outstanding track athlete as garnered first place in three events.

Extremely bad weather plagued the final day of action for the festival as high winds raged all day along with rain and extreme cold.

440-yd. relay—Washington University, :45.0; mile run—Dave Remado (WU) 4:43.5; 120-yd. high hurdles—Mike Easley (C) :15.3; 440-yd. dash—Sam Hinkle (WL) :54.3; 100-yd. dash—Bobby Duckman (WU) :10; 440-int. hurdles—Ken Collins (WU) :57.5; 220-yd. dash—Marty Duckman (WU) :21.4; 3-mile — Dave Remado (WU) 15:55.0; 880-yd. run—Dave Remado (WU) 2:02.3; Mile relay—Centre 3:32.4.

Discus—Doug Deaton (W and L) 138-7; Triple jump—Don Olms (WU) 44-5 3-4; Pole vault—John Colemore (S) 13-4.