Martin Epps' Jackson State track team had little trouble in winning the Southwestern Athletic Conference Indoor Track and Field Championship Sunday at the Mississippi Coliseum.

The Tigers' 187 1/2 points easily outdistanced second place Texas Southern (87 1/2).

J-State took seven first places in its runaway win and the Tigers dominance was displayed in the sprints and the pole vault.

In the 60-yard dash, the Tigers took five of six places. Tommie Dennis won in 6.0, with Earl Thomas second. Larry Wesley, Dennis Trott and Charles Dallas placed fourth through sixth respectively. In the pole vault, Hubert Butler leapt 15-6 to win the event, while freshmen teammates, David Swinton and Cecil Griffin placed second and fourth, respectively.

Other winners for JSU were Ricky Myles in the 600, Leon Martin and Clark Godwin tied in the high jump, Kenneth Brimer in the triple jump. Keith Lee won the 880 and the Tiger mile relay team of Steve Wells, Thomas, Alfred McCullough and Larry Ellis also won.

Prairie View won the women's title behind four first places by Andrea Bruce. J-State was second trailing PVU's 102 points by 14.
