

DURHAM, N. C., May 16—(AP)—Maryland's well-balanced track team won its third successive Southern Conference outdoor title today, piling up 58½ points.

Joel Shankle, Duke's star sophomore, piled up 23 points to enable the Blue Devils to take second place with 41½ points, nosing out third-place North Carolina, which picked up 40½.

Shankle won the broad jump and the 120-yard high hurdles and tied for first in the high jump and pole vault, while finishing second in the 220-yard low hurdles. Veteran observers could not recall when an athlete ever scored as many points in an outdoor conference meet.

In the point scoring back of the first three were VPI, 27½; VMI, 14; South Carolina, 10½; North Carolina State, 9½; West Virginia, 8; Richmond, 5½; Clemson, 4½; Davidson, 2; Furman, 2; Washington and Lee, 1½.

The first five schools finished in the same order of a year ago.

One Record Broken

Although only one record was broken, there were several outstanding performances. Duke's Durham Lawshe tossed the shot 50 feet, 8¾ inches. The old record was 50-7 set five years ago by Duke's Jim O'Leary.

Dashing Dave Matthews, slim speedster from Maryland, turned in a fine pair of sprints, taking the 100 in :09.9 and the 220 in :21.4.

Shankle didn't have to perform in the broad jump today as his 23-foot, 1¾-inch effort of yesterday stood up for a first place medal.

But he still was the busiest athlete in Duke Stadium as the 17-member conference staged what apparently will be its last meeting before the recently announced split goes into effect.

While alternating between the high jump and the pole vault, Shankle had to take time out to run the 220-yard low hurdles. Here he met his only defeat. Johnny Mapp, brilliant VMI speedster, turned him back rather handily in the good time of :23.3.

In the pole vault, which Shankle took up only this year, he and Maryland's Mel Schwarz tied at 13 feet after failing in an attempt to beat the 25-year-old record of 13-3.

Winter Setback Avenged

Coach Jim Kehoe's Maryland charges avenged a Winter meet setback at the hands of Duke by charging into the lead in the first five events and continuing to pick up valuable points thereafter.

Shankle, in the high hurdles, and West Virginia's Larry Hunt, in the discus, were the only repeat winners.

Dave Shafer, of VPI, beat North

Carolina State's Clyde Garrison handily in a 4:23 mile, but, trying to come back later in the two-mile, could do no better than fifth. This event went to Buz Sawyer, North Carolina State, who had a 50-yard edge over runnerup Bobby Barden, North Carolina.

Harry Brown, who placed in both sprints for North Carolina a year ago, was forced to turn to the javelin due to a leg injury and his 190-foot, 9 $\frac{3}{8}$ -inch heave gave him the event.
