

Duke held a lead from the first of the 12 conference division events up to the start of the mile relay. The score then was: Duke 38 1-6, North Carolina 35 1-3.

Carolina's mile relaymen, fighting to give the University its eighth indoor title in the 12 years of the games, put on the pressure. The result of that decisive mile relay was not in doubt, so far as Duke was concerned, after the first lap. Mike Wise, of Carolina, kept his team close in the running, so that Billy Grove could go into the lead and hold it. Duke's Sargent ran the first leg for the Blue Devils, and was far behind the field when the baton was passed. He apparently ran himself out too quickly, or became sick, as he staggered off the banked track once during his leg.

The final conference division scores were: North Carolina 40 1-3, Duke 38 1-6, Maryland 16, William and Mary 7, V. M. I. 6, Davidson 6, V. P. I. 4 1-3, Clemson 4, Washington and Lee 4, State 3, Wake Forest 3, and Richmond 1 1-16.

Three records were set and one was equalled.

A crowd of more than 2,500 watched the track circus run in its four divisions: Conference, varsity non-conference, freshman and scholastic. Navy repeated as non-conference champ. North Carolina won the frosh division and Thomas Jefferson high of Richmond the scholastic.

After Duke got away to a head-start, North Carolina first closed the gap appreciably by a sweep of 10 points in the 70-yard high hurdles. That was the fifth event. Duke led 22 1-6 to 7 1-3 before that. Then it was close the rest of the way, with Carolina trailing until the last event.

Tommy Fields of Maryland, winning the mile and two-mile, and Ernie Vale of Duke, taking the 60-yard dash and broad jump, were high collegiate scorers with 10 points each.

Team scorers in the other divisions were: Non-conference: Navy, defending champion, 26 2-3; Virginia 20 1-3; Georgia Tech 13 1-3; Catholic university, 11; West Chester (Pa.) Teachers 2, Tennessee 2, and Newberry 2 2-3.

Scholastic: Thomas Jefferson high, Richmond, Va., 13; Jefferson Senior high, Roanoke, Va., 8 1-3; McKinley high, Washington, D. C., 7; Maury high, Norfolk, Va., 6; Woodberry Forest 5; Fork Union Military academy 3, Boyden high, Salisbury 3, Episcopal high, Alexandria, Va., 2; Baylor school, Chattanooga, Tenn., 2; Science Hill high, Johnson City, Tenn., 2; Morristown, Tenn., high 2; John Marshall high, Richmond, Va.; Newport News, Va., high 1-3, and Virginia Episcopal school, Lynchburg, Va., 1-3.

North Carolina's freshmen won the freshman division. The team scores were North Carolina 19 1/2, Maryland 8, Virginia 7 1/2, Duke 7, Washington and Lee 5, William and Mary 3, Catholic university 3, and Wake Forest 1.

Jack Milne, North Carolina freshman, set a new record for the freshman three quarter mile run. His time of 3 minutes 10.6 seconds cut more than three seconds off the old mark of 3 minutes 14 seconds set by Davis of North Carolina in 1937.

William (Pinky) Hargrave of Thomas Jefferson high, Richmond, Va., became the fifth man to step the scholastic division 60-yard dash in the record time of 6.5 seconds. That pace was first set by Stevens of Boys high, Atlanta, Ga., in 1934 and was equalled by Pair of Tech high, Atlanta, in 1937 and then in 1939 and 1940 by Legg of Washington and Lee high, Arlington, Va.
