MACOMB, Ill. (AP) — Jeff Burris ran a one minute, 50.16 second 800 meters to set a conference record as Northern Iowa captured the team title Saturday at the AMCU-8 track meet.

UNI collected 224 points, followed by Eastern Illinois, 165; Western Illinois, 147; Southwest Missouri 70; Illinois-Chicago, 22; and Cleveland State, 19.

The win marked the fourth conference outdoor title for the Panthers in the last five years.

Burris' record beat the record set in 1983 by UNI's Kirk Anderson at 1:50.84.

Derek Huff of Western Illinois won the decathlon on Thursday and was voted the Athlete of the Year, while top coach honors went to Chris Bucknam of UNI.
