Barndollar Wins Two

Frank Barndollar of New Hampshire repeated his 1948 feat by being the only double winner of the day. He captured the 220-yard dash and the 220 low hurdles in times of 22 and 24.4 seconds respectively.

Rhode Islanders set three of the new records, with New Hampshire copping the fourth.

Dan Cashman of the Rhodys finished in 1:58.9 in the 880, bettering his 1948 mark by two-tenths of a second.

Charley Varney of the Rams won the broad jump with a meet record of 21 feet, 10 inches—1 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches better than the old mark.

Another Rhody, Art Sherman, broke a 12-foot pole vault mark he jointly held with Maine's Bob Emerson. Sherman's height today was 12 feet, 5 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

New Hampshire's Seldon Varney bettered the old 6 foot high jump mark by  $\frac{1}{4}$  of an inch.
