

UM Close to Being Bad News to RI

DURHAM, N. H.—Rhode Island upheld the pre-meet dope by winning the Yankee Conference track-field championship with 43 17/20 to 41 7/10 which the University of Maine collected in a real treat to RI hopes. The meet went down to the last event with the outcome in doubt but their RI was saved when Sarkis Kojabasin got into a four-way tie for top honors in the pole vault with Linekin and Schroeder of Maine and Hall of Vermont. Conn. was third with 27, New Hampshire had 26 3/4, Massachusetts had 19 1/10 and Vermont 6 3/4.
