

KINGSTON, R. I. (AP) — Massachusetts scored in all but one of 17 events to win the Yankee Conference Track championship Saturday.

Art Lavey, John Medeiros and Bill Tindall combined for 39 points for the Redmen who rolled up 75 points to 58 for runnerup Connecticut.

Lavey won the 100-yard dash in 10.2 and the 220 in 22.0 as one of only two double winners in the meet. He also finished fourth in the broad jump and the high jump to finish with 14 points.

Tindall won the triple jump with a meet record lead of 45-2 $\frac{3}{4}$  as he contributed 12 points to the Massachusetts romp. Medeiros registered 13 points although he failed to win a single event.

The other double winner was Connecticut's Pete Matson, who won the broad jump with a 22-6 $\frac{1}{4}$  leap and the high jump with a 6-3 $\frac{1}{4}$  mark. Matson also finished second in the triple jump to tie Lavey for the high individual mark of 14 points.

Other meet records were set by Fred Sculco of Rhode Island, who did 14-8 in the pole vault, and Maine's Miller White who threw the javelin 219-2.

Following Connecticut in the team standings were Rhode Island with 44 points, defending champion Maine with 35, New Hampshire with 27 and Vermont with 15.
