

AMHERST, Mass. — The University of Massachusetts won the 24th Annual Yankee Conference Track and Field Championship at UMass Saturday by posting a team high of 91 points.

UConn was second with 78 points followed by Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Maine and Vermont.

UMass, which won the event for the fourth time, won only five events but bunched much of its attack in the short dashes.

Nine records were set in the 18-event competition including Wayne Findeisen of Rhode Island who leaped 16' in the pole vault and sophomore Jim Verdon who ran a 1:52.2 in the 880 run wiping out a nine-year-old mark.
