

BURLINGTON, Vt. — The University of Connecticut captured the Yankee Conference outdoor track title for the third straight year in a meet which saw seven new conference records established Saturday at the University of Vermont.

Andy Bessette (Hammer), Herb Davis (Triple Jump) and Paul Murphy (120 high hurdles) set Yankee Conference record for the Connecticut team which outpointed second-place Massachusetts, 102-74.

Connecticut's Rich White of South Windsor (Shot-put and Discus) and Davis (triple jump and long jump) were double winners.

Other Husky victories were registered by Kurt Lorenzen in the javelin and Darryl King in the 440 yard run.
