

STORRS (UPI) — The University of Rhode Island scampered to first place Saturday in the second annual Yankee Conference Indoor Track Championships, breaking existing records on the way.

Rhode Island topped the field with 60 points, with Maine in second place with 36. Other finishes were New Hampshire 32, Massachusetts 29, Connecticut 26, and Vermont 12.

Fred Collingwood of Rhode Island shattered his own meet record set last year in the high jump. Collingwood went 6 feet 5¼ inches to better his old record of 6 feet ¾ inches.

Collingwood's leap Saturday also broke the Rhode Island school record and the University of Connecticut Field House record.

In the broad jump, Lawrence Girouard of Rhode Island broke the existing record of 21 feet 6¾ inches with a jump of 22 feet, 5½ inches.

Rhode Island also took the mile relay in record time of 3 minutes 28 seconds, the 600 yard dash and the 60 yard high hurdles.

Mike Spinell got Connecticut its only first by winning the 60 yard dash in 0:06.6.

UConn also placed second and third to Collingwood in the high jump. Collingwood's leap was one-quarter of an inch better than the Field House mark, held by basketball star Den Hesford, who finished third. His teammate Peter Matson was second in 6-4.
