

The University of Massachusetts turned in a surprise victory in winning the Yankee Conference indoor track championship Saturday, using depth in all events to dethrone defending champion Rhode Island.

The Redmen posted 47 points to 40.5 for Rhode Island. Other scores were: Connecticut, 36.5; New Hampshire, 30; Vermont, 21; and Maine 20.

Six meet records were set headed by new marks in high and low hurdles of 6.7 and 6.4 by John Copeland of Connecticut. John Medieros of Massachusetts set a new standard of 22 feet, 6½ inches in the long jump, and teammate Steve Burrell a mark of 5.5 in the 50-yard dash.

Rick Dunn of New Hampshire ran the 1,000 in 2:17.2 and the Rhody relay team won in 3:27.5.

Frosh Romp

Meanwhile, Maine's Freshman team posted six new frosh marks in halting Deering High School, 85-36.

New marks were: Steve Dowd, pole vault, 12 feet, 11½ inches; Dave Heward, long jump, 21 feet, 11 ¾ inches; Steve Turner, mile, 4:23.4; Ed Schmid, high hurdles, 7.9, all from Maine. Bob Witham of Deering set a new mark of 7.5 in the low hurdles and Jim Flannigan hit six feet, ¼ inch in the high jump.

At Brunswick, Maine's rifle team moved to an 8-0 mark by defeating Bowdoin University, 1299 to 1222. Jim Jenkins with a score of 268 paced the Bears.

Colby College blanked Merrimack College, 5-0, to win the Division Two small college hockey title of the ECAC with Lee Potter making 23 saves and Mike Picher scoring two goals.
